Eden-Tamir Music Center

Ein Kerem, Jerusalem
Full Concert Program

Season 56

Greetings to friends of the Eden-Tamir Music Center and to all music lovers,

We are pleased to present the program of the forthcoming concert season, marking 56 years of musical activity.

In recent years, the Toscanini Quartet has been our Ensemble in Residence, alongside with Ensemble Millennium. The Toscanini quartet is comprised from members of the Millennium Ensemble.

During the season, the Toscanini Quartet/Millennium Ensemble, together with guest artists, will perform the pinnacles of the chamber music repertoire – including late string quartets by Beethoven, Mozart's Dissonance Quartet, Tchaikovsky's second string quartet, string quintets, Brahms' Clarinet Quintet as well as piano quartets and quintets. In the season's final concert, Toscanini Quartet, together with guest artists, will perform Mendelssohn's beloved Octet.

We are thrilled to share good news. The Eden-Tamir Center received a generous donation from the Jack, Joseph and Morton Mandel Foundation, in order to purchase a Graf fortepiano. We have commissioned the renowned fortepiano builder Paul McNulty to construct a Graf for us. Paul McNulty is the most celebrated fortepianos builder worldwide.

Conrad Graf was a Viennese piano builder and his pianos were used by Beethoven in his late period, and by Schubert, Mendelssohn, Schumann and Chopin also played on it. This instrument will be the first and only Graf FortePiano in Israel. The inauguration concert will take place on 15.2.25 and we invite you all to attend this historic event. It will be the first concert of the series "Graf FortePiano in Ein Kerem".

Furthermore, we would like to invite you to enjoy other series, such as "The Best of Chamber Music", "Flute Sounds from Ein Kerem", as well as our special concerts, including concerts of Ensemble Finale as well as a unique program - "Classic meets Jazz" - performed by clarinetist Kobi Solomon with a string quartet.

This season, we will have another new series – "Russian Winter", which will present masterpieces from the Russian repertoire. These diverse concerts will be performed by leading artists and ensembles from Israel and guests from abroad.

The Eden-Tamir Music Center in Ein Kerem welcomes the artists and ensembles from Israel and abroad who will take part in the different series. We are honored to invite you, the audience, to celebrate 56 years of extensive activity, in such a magical venue.

The world-famous piano duo Eden and Tamir, performed for more than 50 years and between 1955-2006 gave over 5000 performances as soloists with orchestras, in recitals, on television and radio and in various festivals.

Bracha and Alexander met in 1951 as students of Prof. Alfred Schroeder at the New Jerusalem Conservatory (now the Jerusalem Academy of Music and Dance). Their teacher was the one who encouraged them to play together, just as Artur Schnabel had with his student-assistant Alfred Schroeder. In 1955 the Eden-Tamir duo received a scholarship to participate at the Aspen Festival and study with Vronsky and Babin. Two years later they won the first prize in the Vercelli Duo Competition in Italy. In 1958 the duo participated in "The Ed Sullivan of Israeli Stars" which was organized by Ed Sullivan, an American television star. Among the talents that participated in the show was also a 13-year-old violinist – Itzhak Perlman. From then on Eden-Tamir Duo became a success story.

The Duo made many recordings in Israel and abroad, including for Decca and CRD. These include works by Mozart, Brahms, Debussy and Ravel as well as 8 CD's of Schubert's works for piano 4 hands.

The Eden Tamir Duo performed with the leading orchestras around the world, including the Israel Philharmonic, the BBC Orchestra, London Symphony Orchestra, The Boston Symphony Orchestra, LA Chamber Orchestra, Hamburg Radio Orchestra, Warsaw Philharmonic and many others.

Brach Eden and Alexander Tamir were distinguished professors at the Jerusalem Academy. Alexander Tamir was also appointed as Dean and Bracha Eden was appointed head of the piano department.

Together, they founded the Targ Center for chamber music in Ein Kerem in 1968. Later on, the name was changed to Eden-Tamir Music Center. They founded a competition for young artists as well as the Chopin Society in Israel.

In the 90s, they continued to perform and to give masterclasses in China, Russia, Poland, among other countries.

The Eden Tamir Duo performed the American debut of Lutoslavsky's Variations on a Theme by Paganini in 1955. Together with composer Igor Stravinsky, they made an arrangement of the Rite of Spring for 2 pianos and recorded it. Upon an invitation from the BBC, they recorded all Brahms' symphonies in the composer's own version for 2 pianos.
